The title of the film is FIVE FEET APART.

It is a ROM-COM film, in which Cole Sprouse and Haley Lu Richardson star.

It is set in a hospital in the present and it is based on a book. It tells the story of Stella and Will who have cystic fibrosis.

They have to keep a distance so they communicate through social media. When Stella's friend, POE, dies, Will and Stella leave the hospital to see the city lights.

In the meantime the hospital finds a donor for Stella's lungs, but what about Will? The film is very moving because it is about true love.

TOLO TOLO

The title of this film is Tolo Tolo and Checco Zalone stars in it. It's a comedy, but it doesn't make you laugh like all his previous movies. It's about a man who escapes from Italy. He criticises Italy all the time and he doesn't want to return. But in Africa life is not good and he experiences the hard life of the African people trying to migrate to Europe. I didn't like this film. It was boring and I even slept for a few minutes. It's very political and I didn't understand some of the points.

I give it two stars
